

TOPANGA CANYON DOCENTS

35TH FIELD ECOLOGY WEEKEND

APRIL 28 & 29, 2018

In Association with Malibu Creek Docents

FIELD ECOLOGY WEEKEND

The 35th Field Ecology Weekend, presented by the Topanga Canyon Docents in association with Malibu Creek Docents, will be held on Saturday and Sunday, April 28 & 29, 2018.

Attendance: Docents and their family, prospective docents, and other environmental educators from throughout the region are welcome to attend. There will be no child care available but your children are invited to attend with you.

Location: Malibu Creek State Park in the Group Campsite Area. Tent camping is not mandatory but is preferred. Camping and parking are included in your registration fee. You must make your own R.V. Camping arrangements.

Check-in: 8:00am to 9:15am on Saturday. Workshops on Saturday start at 9:30am. Sunday morning workshops begin at 8am.

Deadline: reservation and payment must be received by April 21, 2018

Event: This is a leisure and learning weekend event in a secluded setting in the Santa Monica Mountains. We have planned a program of seminars, walks and workshops led by experts. This is an entirely outdoor event. We do not provide enclosed shelters. Dress for the weather and bring a sense of adventure. Saturday night there will be a potluck dinner, so be sure to bring something to share.

Registration: Reservations are required and must be received with your payment no later than April 21, 2018. Space is limited. Send a self-addressed stamped envelope, registration form and check to the address on the attached Registration Form.

Cost: There is a non-refundable fee of $70 per adult (15 and older), $30 per child (ages 6 to 14), children under 6 are free. Refunds will be made only if event is canceled by TCD (due to heavy rain or park fire closure, e.g.). If, after paying your fee, you are unable to attend, the amount will be considered a donation to Topanga Canyon Docents.
